A WORD FROM CHRISTY'S CLIENTS...

We wanted to find a knowledgeable, responsive and understanding agent when we sold our Scottsdale home in Stonegate, and we found that with Christy Mooney. She knows the area extremely well, and was excellent to work with. She listened to our needs, consulted with us to make sure the process went according to our timing, and provided help with readying the house for showing and sale. Every detail went perfectly, from the photography to the paperwork to the close. Couldn't ask for a better agent to help us navigate through the process. We give her our highest recommendation.

Christy is one of the best realtors we've worked with. We started working with Christy in the year prior to actually listing our home. She provided specific advice on improvements/updates we needed to do to help our sale and this ensured we did not spend money needlessly. She was very in tune to the local market and helped us pick the optimal time for listing. Christy had a clear strategy on marketing our house and minimizing the inconvenience to us. She clearly communicated her strategy in choosing the listing price and in creating enthusiasm around our sale. People were literally lined up at our neighborhood gate during the open house! Her negotiation skills were excellent and she helped us to obtain a sales price far above asking price and favorable contract terms that helped ease the pain of moving. Christy is smart, easy going and we feel very lucky to have worked with her.

She responds back quickly and if she doesn't know something she researches quickly. She even helps with after sale repairs. She will be at the house to meet repair people if you can't. This is after the sale! She goes the proverbial extra mile. Highly recommend Christy! She is the best!
